

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
NO. 07-77-36

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE
NINTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR ORANGE COUNTY, FLORIDA

ORDER CONCERNING APPLICATION OF BOND MONEY TOWARD PAYMENT OF FINE AND COSTS

WHEREAS, a defendant admitted to bail may deposit money in lieu of any other form of bail; and

WHEREAS, some defendants against whom a judgement has been entered for the payment of fine and court costs have asked to have the fine and costs deducted from previously deposited bail money;

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that a Judge of the County Court may authorize the deduction of fine and costs from previously deposited bail money when a judgment has been entered for the payment of fines and costs and the defendant, or another person in his behalf, has previously deposited money for bail and authorized the deduction of fines and court costs from the same.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that when so directed by a Judge of the County Court, the Sheriff will transfer to the Clerk of Circuit and County Court the bond money deposited by or on behalf of the defendant in the case and the Clerk will apply the funds toward the payment of fines and costs assessed, returning the remainder of the bond money to the depositor or his authorized representative.

DONE AND ORDERED at Orlando, Florida, this 12th day of May, 1978.

Richard B. Keating
Chief Judge
