

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
NO. 2015-07

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE
NINTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND
FOR ORANGE AND OSCEOLA
COUNTIES, FLORIDA

ORDER GOVERNING BATTERERS' INTERVENTION PROGRAM PROVIDERS, NINTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

WHEREAS, pursuant to Article V, section 2(d) of the Florida Constitution and section 43.26, Florida Statutes, the chief judge of each judicial circuit is charged with the authority and the power to do everything necessary to promote the prompt and efficient administration of justice; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the chief judge's constitutional and statutory responsibility for administrative supervision of the courts within the circuit and to create and maintain an organization capable of effecting the efficient, prompt, and proper administration of justice for the citizens of this State, the chief judge is required to exercise direction, see Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.215(b)(2), (b)(3); and

WHEREAS, per section 741.32, Florida Statutes, the Legislature has found that the incidence of domestic violence in this state is disturbingly high and that, despite the efforts of many to curb this violence, one person dies at the hands of a spouse, ex-spouse, or cohabitant approximately every 3 days. Further, a child who witnesses the perpetration of this violence becomes a victim as he or she hears or sees it occurring. This child is at high risk of also being the victim of physical abuse by the parent who is perpetrating the violence and, to a lesser extent, by the parent who is the victim. These children are also at a high risk of perpetrating violent crimes as juveniles and, later, becoming perpetrators of the same violence that they witnessed as children. Additionally, the Legislature has found that there should be standardized programming available to the justice system to protect victims and their children and to hold the perpetrators of domestic violence accountable for their acts. Finally, the Legislature recognizes that in order for batterers' intervention programs to be successful in protecting victims and their children, all participants in the justice system as well as social service agencies and local and state governments must coordinate their efforts at the community level; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Children and Families has historically been responsible for the statewide domestic violence program, which provides supervision, direction, coordination, and administration of activities related to domestic violence prevention and intervention services; and

WHEREAS, imperative to ending domestic violence is to ensure that batterers' intervention program providers have the necessary credentials, experience and hands-on knowledge to ensure program effectiveness and offender compliance with a focus on victim safety; and

WHEREAS, batterers' intervention programs are an integral component to a comprehensive approach to domestic violence. Strong communication between providers of such programs and the criminal justice system is paramount to making sure perpetrators of domestic violence are held accountable and a change in behavior is attainable; and

WHEREAS, effective July 1, 2012, HB 7093 amended section 741.32, Florida Statutes, and other related statutes, terminating the Department of Children and Family Services Office for Certification and Monitoring of batterers' intervention programs with no further specification as to certification and oversight of said programs; and

WHEREAS, Administrative Order No. 2012-12, Temporary Order Governing Batterers' Intervention Programs for the Ninth Judicial Circuit Court, was issued June 29, 2012, stating that as of the effective date of that Order, all current state certified batterers' intervention programs shall remain the sole referral source for the Ninth Judicial Circuit Court until such time as the Court implements permanent measures to address the need created by House Bill 7093, effective July 1, 2012; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to section 741.325(1), Florida Statutes, when the court orders the respondent to participate in a batterers' intervention program, the court, or any entity designated by the court, must provide the respondent with a list of batterers' intervention programs from which the respondent must choose a program in which to participate; and

WHEREAS, the undersigned Chief Judge has determined that establishing an approved list of Certified Batterers' Intervention Program Providers for Orange and Osceola County would serve the interest of justice and judicial economy, preserve judicial resources, assist the bar in discharging the duties and obligations to clients, and benefit the citizens of Orange and Osceola County; and

WHEREAS, it is necessary for the Chief Judge to establish an administrative process for review, approval, certification, renewal and regulation of program providers meeting the necessary requirements to be certified as a batterers' intervention program provider as provided by the Florida Statutes and this Administrative Order throughout the Ninth Judicial Circuit;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Frederick J. Lauten, pursuant to the authority vested in me as Chief Judge of the Ninth Judicial Circuit of Florida under Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.215, do hereby order that the following standards, requirements and procedures shall be established for all batterers' intervention programs to be eligible for inclusion on the approved list of Certified Batterers' Intervention Program Providers for the Ninth Judicial Circuit, effective immediately, and to continue until further order:
