

COURT REPORTING CONTRACTUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The Ninth Judicial Circuit Court is seeking to contract with an individual for the following services: Scoping, proofreading, and assisting with transcript production.

This contract would be of an indefinite term on an as-needed basis.

The Ninth Circuit is seeking experienced contractors that have in-court experience as either a court reporter or transcriber of court proceedings.

Requirements: Strong transcribing skills, grammar, attention to detail, and knowledge of the court system and processes.

These services would be paid by the page and the rate is dependent upon the contractor's knowledge and experience.

Work will be randomly checked for quality and accuracy.

To be a scopist, Eclipse software and own equipment is required and familiarity with stenography is necessary.

These duties will be performed offsite. When work is submitted on the agreed-upon due date, invoices are paid timely.

You must sign up to be a vendor with the state of Florida.

<https://flvendor.myfloridacfo.com/>

<https://vendor.myfloridamarketplace.com>

The work to be accomplished is considered confidential, governed by Article V, section 14 of the Florida Constitution, section 29. You must familiarize yourself with the ethics rules that apply.

Contact info:

Jean Dexter, RPR, CRR
Court Reporting Services
435 North Orange Avenue, Suite 102
Orlando, Florida 32801
ctrpjd1@ocnjcc.org
407-836-2285