EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

LOOKING FOR COURT INTERPRETERS TO WORK IN ORANGE AND OSCEOLA COUNTY

The Ninth Judicial Circuit is seeking qualified interpreters in the above languages to assist in onsite interpretation for numerous court cases, including criminal, juvenile, and domestic violence injunctions.

Working as an interpreter in the Ninth Judicial Circuit is a great way to earn supplemental income while also providing a much needed and valued service. As a freelance interpreter, you can accept or decline assignments at will.

All interested candidates must be fully bilingual. Previous interpreting experience is a plus, however we do offer free training.

As indicated, this is not a full-time position. All work will be offered on a contractual basis. If you are interested, please submit a résumé to: interpreter@ocnjcc.org

Standard Compensation (for most languages):

- $55 an hour, two-hour minimum for non-certified interpreters
- $70 an hour, two-hour minimum for certified interpreters
- $90 an hour, two-hour minimum for certified ASL interpreters
