

Checking for availability on aiCalendar

9th Judicial Circuit Court Calendar \(ocnjcc.net\)

The 9th Circuit Court of Florida does not currently permit online scheduling. An online account is not necessary to check availability for a Judge.

The initial page will look like this:

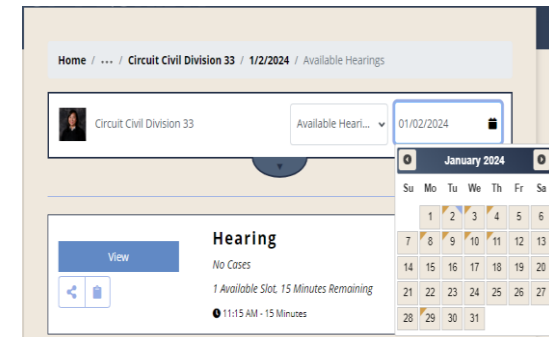

- Find the Judge you need to schedule with and select available hearings to the right of the picture.
- The next page will have options for available hearings, all hearings, weekly docket, and daily docket in a drop down.
- Next to the drop down there is a calendar drop down that you can use to select a date and see what is available on a specific date.

- Another way to open the calendar for available times is to click on the blue half circle under the box containing the drop downs. The icon looks like this:
- When you click on this icon it will open a calendar where you can select the date you are looking for and you can see if there is available time.
- Blue arrow in the upper right corner indicates available time.
- Gold arrow in the upper left corner indicates scheduled time.
- It should look like this when you click on the icon:
- When you have the selected the date(s), contact the Judicial Assistant for scheduling.
