Guidelines and Procedures

County Civil –Division 77
Judge Jeramy C. Beasley
Orange County Judge

(Updated May 1, 2024)

In order to assist self-represented litigants and attorneys, the following guidelines and procedures are adopted for County Civil Division 77 in Orange County, Florida when practicing or appearing before Judge Jeramy C. Beasley. These guidelines and procedures are expected to be read and complied with prior to any appearance in the division. Please note, these are general guidelines and procedures and not an exhaustive list. The Court or applicable law may require different or additional procedures aside from those referenced below. If you have any questions concerning Court preferences that are not listed herein, please email the Judicial Assistant.

SMALL CLAIMS ACTIONS:

If you file a Small Claims action (damages sought are $8,000.00 or less), it will be set for a Pre-Trial Conference / Mediation; the date and time of the Pre-Trial Conference will be set by the Clerk of Court and displayed on the Summons. The instructions for attending the Pre-Trial Conference will appear on the notice.

The Parties are encouraged to confer and resolve their respective case ahead of the Pre-Trial date. In the event your case is resolved ahead of the Pre-Trial Conference, you must still appear at Pre-Trial for purposes of meeting with the Judge and ensuring the agreement has been approved by the Court. Pre-Trial Conferences may only be continued / appearances at Pre-Trial Conference can only be waived by Court Order.

If a party fails to appear at Pre-Trial Conference / Mediation, the opposing side can request a Clerk's Default or Court Dismissal of Action. Once a Clerk's Default has been requested, Plaintiff and/or Plaintiff's Attorney must submit the Order to the Clerk's office; the Clerk will not provide the Default Order. If a Clerk's Default is entered, Plaintiff and/or Plaintiff's Attorney must submit a Default Final Judgment packet to the Judge, via the Clerk, with a courtesy copy e-mailed to the Court in Word Format at 77Orange@NinthCircuit.org.

Note: Self-represented litigants and attorneys appearing before Judge Beasley in relation to Small Claims Actions are expected to familiarize themselves with and fully comply with the Florida Small Claims Rules, as these rules will govern. Please note, pursuant to Administrative Order 2009-12-03 (effective October 7, 2021) the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure will automatically be invoked and will govern all First Party Insurance Claims filed as a Small Claims Action.

COUNTY COURT ACTIONS:

If you file a County Court action (damages sought are between $8,001.00 to $50,000.00), the Defendant will typically have between five (5) and twenty (20) days after being served, depending on case type, to respond (See Summons for applicable response date). If Defendant fails to respond, Plaintiff can move for a Clerk's Default. If Defendant is self-represented and files a response to Complaint, the Court will likely refer the case to Mediation to be conducted by the Ninth Circuit Court Alternative Dispute Resolution Department (at the Orange County Courthouse). A $60 mediation fee (each party) will apply, and the Mediation office kindly requests payment be made in advance.

Note: Self-represented litigants and attorneys appearing before Judge Beasley are expected to familiarize themselves with and fully comply with the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, as well as Ninth Judicial Circuit Administrative Order 2021-04-01, Order Governing Civil Case Management and Resolution. Please note, Landlord Tenant actions are treated differently pursuant to Florida law.

If you settle a case, file dismissal with Clerk's Office, e-mail a copy to the Judicial Assistant and advise Judicial Assistant to take case off hearing/trial docket.

Discovery Disputes

Discovery Disputes – Parties are required to make a good faith attempt to resolve discovery disputes prior to scheduling a hearing. All County Civil Judges follow the guidelines set out in the 2021 Handbook on Discovery Practice, available at Rules and Policies | Ninth Judicial Circuit Court of Florida \(ninthcircuit.org\)

Discovery Motions – The mere filing of a Discovery Motion, Motion to Compel or Motion for Protective Order is insufficient. Motions must be set for hearing to bring the matter to the Court's attention. If no response or objection has been filed to initial Supreme Court approved discovery requests (e.g. Fact Information Sheet, Interrogatories, etc.), the moving party may submit proposed order with the Motion. No hearing will be necessary.

Attorney Fees - If you are seeking attorney fees you must, before filing a Motion to Compel pursuant to Rule 1.380, Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, or a Motion for a Protective Order, as provided in Rule 1.280(c), Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, confer with counsel for the opposing party in a good-faith effort to resolve by agreement the issues raised, and shall file with the court at the time of filing of the motion a statement certifying that he/she has conferred with opposing counsel and that counsel have been unable to resolve the dispute.

As provided in Section (a) (4) of Rule 1.380, if the motion is granted, the court shall award expenses which may include attorney's fees.

County Court Trials

Once a case is at issue, either party may file a Notice for Trial, advising the Court the case is at issue. Once the Notice for Trial has been filed (or on the Court's on volition) a trial will be set.

Non-Jury Trials – If either party files a Notice for Trial (i.e. that the case is at issue), please include the estimated time needed by all sides and the Court will schedule a Status Conference Hearing / Case Management Hearing, issue a Case Management Order/ Uniform Order Requiring Pre-Trial Matters to be completed, or coordinate with parties to set trial date. If you are requesting a particular date /time for the non-jury trial, please: (1) review the Court’s docket using aiCalendar for available times; (2) clear time(s) with opposing counsel/self-represented litigant; and (3) contact the Judicial Assistant with your request for a date, time and length of trial. Thereafter, the Court will ultimately decide the trial date and how much time will be allocated for the trial. If you need more than an hour, please set out your reasons in writing to the Court. Please note, all non-jury trials are held in Hearing Room 370.04, unless otherwise noted.

Jury-Trials – Once a case is determined to be at issue, a Uniform Trial Order will be issued, and the case will be set for Pre-Trial Conference and Trial. Pre-Trial Conferences are typically held three (3) weeks prior to the Trial Period commencing. During the Pre-Trial Conference, the Court will advise the parties of the location / courtroom in which the Trial will be held. Two weeks prior to the Trial Period commencing, the Court will determine the Order in which the Trials will proceed.

Have a Question About Your Case?

Please understand that the County Civil Judges and Judicial Assistants work very hard to handle the thousands of cases before them. With so many law firms and self-represented litigants, the Judicial Assistants spend hours each day talking to individuals when most of their questions could be answered by using the internet to review the Court file or by simply filing an appropriate Motion. When the Court signs an Order, it is delivered to the Clerk for filing. If you have questions concerning whether an Order has been entered, please check with Clerk (by contacting the Clerk’s office directly or by visiting www.myorangeclerk.com).

Myclerk - County Civil utilizes the Odyssey electronic case management system. Odyssey is maintained by the Clerk of Court. Odyssey electronically displays court filings, including financial information. Non-court personnel can access the Odyssey docket listing by going to www.myorangeclerk.com. On the left side is the icon for “myclerk”. Click the icon, answer access question, click Civil Case Records link, search by case and type in your case number (remember “o” as in Orlando, is the typical court location). Click the case and you can see the list of pleadings and orders filed with the Clerk. You cannot open up a particular document (unless you go to Room 310 and use a computer in the Viewing Room); you essentially are looking at a docket index. It is the same one that the Judicial Assistant is looking at if you were to call with a question. Please use “myclerk” instead of calling the Judicial Assistant.

Review a File - If you want to review a file in person or see the pleadings listed in the court file, go to Clerk’s office Viewing Room located in Room 310. Using available computers, type in password “public” and navigate to file. While there is no charge to view the contents contained within the court file, there is a $1.00 per page charge to print.

Legal Advice - The Judge and Judicial Assistant are prohibited from providing legal advice. Self-represented parties are encouraged to contact the Orange County Clerk of Courts Self Help Center located in Room 340 of the Orange County Courthouse. Appointments can be made by calling 407-836-6300. This service is available for all Small Claims and Residential Eviction Cases.
