

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
NO. 07-95-44-03

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE
NINTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR ORANGE AND OSCEOLA COUNTIES,
FLORIDA

AMENDED ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER GOVERNING THE CHILD SUPPORT HEARING OFFICERS' GENERAL POWERS AND DUTIES PURSUANT TO FAMILY LAW RULE OF PROCEDURE 12.491 AND PROCEDURES

Family Law Rule of Procedure 12.491 applies to proceedings for the establishment, enforcement, or modification of child support, or the enforcement of any support order for the parent or other person entitled to receive child support in conjunction with an ongoing child support or child support arrearage order, when a party seeking support is receiving services pursuant to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. §§ 651 et seq.) upon administrative order of the chief justice.

Rule 12.491(e) addresses the general powers and duties of child support enforcement hearing officers and empowers the hearing officers to issue process, administer oaths, require the production of documents, and conduct hearings for the purpose of taking evidence and states that the hearing officers do not have the authority to hear contested paternity cases.

Upon the receipt of a child support proceeding, the child support enforcement hearing officer shall:

- (1) assign a time and place for an appropriate hearing and give notice to each of the parties as may be required by law;
  - (2) take testimony and establish a record, which record may be by electronic means as provided by Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.535(h);
  - (3) accept voluntary acknowledgment of paternity and support liability and stipulated agreements setting the amount of support to be paid; and
  - (4) evaluate the evidence and promptly make a recommended order to the court.
- Such order shall set forth findings of fact.

Rule 12.491(a) states that rule 12.491 shall become effective only when specifically invoked by administrative order of the chief justice for use in a particular county or circuit. By Administrative Order dated February 27, 1998, the Supreme Court of Florida ordered that, pursuant to Family Law Rule of Procedure 12.491, hearing officers may be utilized in this Circuit to consider proceedings for the establishment, enforcement and modification of support in Title IV-D cases.

By the power vested in the chief judge under Article V, section 2(d) of the Florida Constitution, section 43.26, Florida Statutes, and Rule 2.215 of the Florida Rules of General Practice and Judicial Administration, effective immediately, to continue until further order and superseding any provisions in prior Administrative Orders that may be inconsistent, it is ORDERED:

I. CHILD SUPPORT ENFORCEMENT.

The provisions of Family Law Rule of Procedure 12.491 governing child support enforcement hearing officers shall be followed and enforced in both Orange and Osceola Counties in the Ninth Judicial Circuit.

II. TITLE IV-D DEFINITION.

For purposes of this Administrative Order, a case retains the character of a Title IV-D case only so long as no Termination of Child Support Services has been filed. Once the Department of Revenue has withdrawn from providing Title IV-D services and filed a Termination of Child Support Services, the case is no longer considered a Title IV-D case and shall not be heard before the support hearing officers.

III. CHILD SUPPORT NOTICES OF HEARING/NON-JURY TRIAL.

A party shall provide timely notice to a child support hearing officer that a support proceeding requiring a hearing has been filed with the Clerk of Court. The notice shall be in the applicable form as attached hereto.<sup>1</sup> The original notice shall be delivered to the hearing officer, together with sufficient copies of the notice for service to all parties and with stamped, addressed envelopes bearing the party's return address.

The notice shall indicate the party's estimate of the length of time required for the hearing and shall not be set for less than the minimum time listed on the schedule of times. It is the responsibility of the party providing the Notice of Hearing to request adequate time for the motion or trial. The notice shall also contain a requested date and time for the hearing as appears to be available in the hearing officer's online calendaring program. The party providing the notice must coordinate the requested hearing time with any other counsel of record in the case.

Timely notice to the hearing officer requires that the notices and envelopes be provided to the hearing officer no less than 30 days before the requested hearing date and no less than 45 days before the requested trial date. For motions requiring an expedited hearing by law, the required notices must be provided no less than 10 days before the requested hearing date.

Upon receipt of the notice detailed above, the hearing officer shall assign a time and place for the hearing and give notice to each of the parties as may be required by law.

IV. SCHEDULE OF TIMES.

All motions shall be set for minimum of 15 minutes.

Non-jury trials on Petitions for Enforcement of Administrative Support Order and Petitions for Modification (to extend child support only) shall be set for minimum 15 minutes.

Non-jury trials for any other petition shall be set for minimum of one-half hour. If an interpreter will be needed and/or there are multiple calculations of support to be made, please adjust the requested time accordingly.

If you are delivering notices for multiple cases in Orange County, please provide the notices and envelopes separated by case and separated by the assigned hearing officer. Hearing Officer Groves is assigned those cases with a case number ending in 0, 1, 2 or 3; Hearing Officer Ferrer is assigned those cases with a case number ending in 4 or 5; and Hearing Officer Hepner is assigned those cases with a case number ending in 6, 7, 8 or 9.

To promote efficient and timely disposition of all IV-D child support cases, the administrative child support hearing officer from time to time may assess the caseload of each hearing officer and direct that cases be set before the next available hearing officer (disregarding the case number assignments stated herein), whenever the need arises and for a certain period of time.

V. RELATED CASES.

Please review and be aware of Amended Administrative Order 2017-10-02 (as may be amended) Governing Unified Family Court, Orange County and Amended Administrative Order 2005-16-09 (as may be amended) Governing Unified Family Court and the Assignment and Scheduling of Domestic Relations and Juvenile Cases, Osceola County. In instances where there is a party subject to a domestic violence injunction, the case may need reassignment and hearings with the assigned domestic violence division judge.

VI. VACATING ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER.

Administrative Order 07-95-44-02 is vacated and set aside except to the extent that it has been incorporated and/or amended herein. Vacating an Administrative Order that vacates a prior Order does not revive the prior Order.

DONE AND ORDERED at Orlando, Florida, this 10th day of January, 2022.
