

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
NO. 2017-04-02

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE
NINTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR ORANGE COUNTY, FLORIDA

AMENDED ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER ESTABLISHING NINTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT COURT COUNTY CIVIL COURT GUIDELINES, ORANGE COUNTY

The purpose of this Administrative Order is to establish standardized procedures and manners of communication between the parties and the court to best serve the interests of those that come before the court, preserve valuable judicial resources and prevent confusion and delay.

By the power vested in the chief judge under Article V, section 2(d) of the Florida Constitution, section 43.26, Florida Statutes, and Rule 2.215 of the Florida Rules of General Practice and Judicial Administration, effective immediately, unless otherwise provided herein, to continue until further order and superseding any provisions in prior Administrative Orders that may be inconsistent, it is ORDERED:

1. A mandatory meet and confer process is hereby established, as set forth below, for all motions to be set for hearing in the county civil division and to occur before scheduling the hearing except for the following motions: injunctive relief without notice; judgment on the pleadings; summary judgment or any hearings where a pro se litigant is involved.

Counsel with full authority to resolve the matter shall confer before scheduling the hearing on the motion to attempt to resolve or otherwise narrow the issues raised in the motion, and include a Certificate of Compliance (attached hereto as "Exhibit A") that the conference has occurred in the Notice of Hearing filed with the Court. It shall be the responsibility of counsel who schedules the hearing to arrange the conference.

The term "confer" requires a substantive conversation in person or by telephone in a good faith effort to resolve the motion without the need to schedule a hearing, and does not envision an exchange of ultimatums by fax, email or letter. Counsel who merely attempt to confer have not conferred for purposes of this Order.

Counsel must respond promptly to inquiries and communications from opposing counsel who notices the hearing and is attempting to schedule the conference. If counsel who notices the hearing is unable to reach opposing counsel to conduct the conference after three (3) good faith attempts, counsel who notices the hearing must identify in the Certificate of Compliance the dates and times of the efforts made to contact opposing counsel.

Counsel shall include in the Notice of Hearing the Certificate of Compliance certifying that the meet and confer occurred (or did not occur and setting out the good faith attempts to schedule the conference) and identifying the date of the conference, the names of the participating attorneys, and the specific results obtained.

Counsel who notices the hearing shall ensure that the court and the court's judicial assistant are aware of any narrowing of the issues or other resolution because of the conference.

2. Counsel is required to provide the court (and opposing counsel) with courtesy copies of any memoranda, case law or any other materials on which counsel may rely at a scheduled hearing at least three (3) court days before the scheduled hearing.

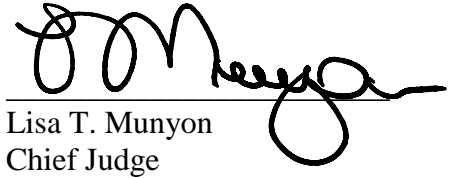

3. A party seeking to schedule hearing time shall check the Judicial Automated Calendaring System, or other calendaring system being utilized by the Court, via the Ninth Judicial Circuit Court website for available time slots. The party shall then follow the procedures by the court for that particular division.

Good faith cooperation is expected from counsel, support staff, and self-represented litigants for scheduling hearings. If after three (3) attempts on separate days (at least 24 hours apart and during normal business hours) to coordinate a hearing with a minimum of three (3) separate date and time options, opposing party does not cooperate or respond, the requesting party may unilaterally set a hearing giving at least two weeks' notice to the opposing party who failed to cooperate or respond. Efforts to coordinate the hearing shall be noted on the Unilateral Notice of Hearing.

4. In the event that a party seeks to cancel a previously scheduled hearing, the party must email the judge's judicial assistant and file a notice of cancellation.

5. Administrative Order 2017-04-02 is vacated and set aside except to the extent that it has been incorporated and/or amended herein. Vacating an Administrative Order that vacates a prior Order does not revive the prior Order.

DONE AND ORDERED at Orlando, Florida, this 28th day of June, 2023.

Lisa T. Munyon
Chief Judge
