

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE
NINTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR ORANGE COUNTY, FLORIDA

CASE NO.: 48-_____-CA-_____-O

BUSINESS COURT - DIVISION 43

COMPLEX CONSTRUCTION CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER

It is, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that, unless later modified by Order of this Court, the following shall control the management and proceedings in this case.

1. GENERAL PURPOSE AND COMMUNICATION

1.1 Purpose. This litigation concerns allegations of construction defects involving _____ (the “Subject Property”). This construction defect action is deemed complex, in that it shall involve a large number of parties and claims, and trial, if it occurs, is likely to be prolonged. The purpose of this Case Management Order (“CMO”) is to discourage wasteful pretrial activities, to reduce the costs of litigation, to assist the parties in resolving their disputes if possible, and to secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of the action.

1.2 Counsel and Parties. The parties are represented by the following, which shall be Designated Lead Trial Counsel:

- a. _____ representing Plaintiff(s).

Revised 11/16/2020

b. _____ representing Defendant(s)_____.

c. _____ representing Third Party Defendant _____.

1.3 Filings. All pleadings shall be electronically filed with the Clerk of the Courts. The parties agree to serve each other via email absent the submission being too voluminous to do so. If the submission is too voluminous to serve via email, a reduced submission shall be served electronically via email without exhibits and attachments with service via U.S. mail, Federal Express (or the equivalent), or hand-delivery of the submission with the exhibits and attachments. Counsel and any unrepresented parties shall designate the email and mailing addresses where such service is to be effectuated and provide notice of same to all parties. Counsel for the Plaintiff(s) shall maintain and circulate as necessary, a current service list for the convenience of all parties. It shall be the responsibility of all parties to review each updated service list for their respective service information's accuracy and notify Plaintiff(s) of any necessary corrections.

1.4 Discovery Not Filed. The parties shall not file discovery materials with the Clerk of the Courts, special magistrate or general magistrate.

1.5 Governing Law. On any matter which this CMO is silent, the Florida Statutes, Florida Rules of Civil Procedure and Business Court Procedures for the Ninth Judicial Circuit Court, Orange County, Florida shall control. The Business Court Procedures are available at <https://ninthcircuit.org/about/divisions/business-court>.

2. CASE MANAGEMENT DATES AND DEADLINES

2.1 Close of Pleadings Not Required. Although the Court may consider the state of the pleadings, the Court may set any hearing, conference, deadline, or trial date regardless of whether the pleadings remain at issue.

2.2 Dates and Deadlines. The following dates and deadlines shall be applicable to the parties as stated.

3. SPECIAL MAGISTRATE

3.1 Appointment. The parties stipulate to the appointment of _____ as Special Magistrate in this case with the authority set forth in Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.490 (f). The Special Magistrate shall address any and all issues pertaining to discovery and to issue a report and recommendation to the Court pursuant to Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.490. The Special Magistrate may also render telephonic rulings, if available to do so, regarding issues that arise during deposition. Because all parties may not be present at each deposition, the Special Magistrate’s deposition rulings shall only apply to the deposition for which the ruling was rendered.³

3.2 Good Faith Conference Requirement. With the exception of issues pertaining to a deposition in progress, the parties must comply in all applicable respects with the BCP 5.3 and Good Faith Conference requirements prior to submitting any discovery motion to the Special

Magistrate.

3.3 Form of Discovery Briefs. The form of discovery motions and oppositions may be presented in letter form and shall be submitted to the Special Magistrate and properly served on all parties.

3.4 Discovery Brief Deadlines. Unless a specific briefing schedule is issued by the Special Magistrate, opposition briefs are due ten (10) days after service of a discovery motion and reply briefs are due seven (7) days after receipt of the opposition.

3.5 Compensation. The compensation of the Special Magistrate shall be $_____ per hour of service and paid equally among the parties. The Special Magistrate shall have the power to recommend a different allocation, depending upon the actual participation of a party or the nature and purpose of the particular proceedings before the Special Magistrate. Payment shall be made within forty-five (45) days of receipt of an invoice for services. A party will be responsible for compensating the Special Magistrate until serving the Special Magistrate with a written order removing that party from the litigation.

3.6 Sanctions. Any motion seeking monetary payment, the striking of pleadings or the striking of expert witness designations shall be filed directly with the Court.

4. DOCUMENT PRODUCTION AND STANDARDIZED DISCOVERY

4.1 (Option A) Disc Exchange. Each party shall scan all non-privileged documents required to be produced pursuant to this CMO to discs and serve them on all parties in .pdf format within thirty (30) days of the entry of the this CMO. The format of the scanning for all documents produced must be undertaken in a manner which allows the disc reviewer to scroll through the individual pages (as opposed to opening each document page as a separate file).

Each party shall sequentially Bates number each document production with an appropriate lettering identifying the producing party. Each party shall bear its own costs of producing its discs pursuant to this subsection. A copy of each disc produced shall also be provided to the court reporting service designated herein. The designated court reporting service shall maintain the discs and allow the parties to access them for deposition and mediation purposes.

4.1 (Option B) Virtual Depository. Each party shall upload all non-privileged documents required to be produced pursuant to this CMO within thirty (30) days of the entry of the this CMO to the _____(cloud depository service). The format of the uploaded documents produced must be undertaken in a manner which allows the reviewer to scroll through the individual pages (as opposed to opening each document page as a separate link or file). Each party shall sequentially Bates number each document production with an appropriate lettering identifying the producing party. Each party shall bear its own costs of uploading the documents to the cloud service. The designated court reporting service shall be given access to the uploaded document productions. The designated court reporting service shall also timely upload all deposition and hearing exhibits to the cloud/virtual depository service. No party shall remove any part of another party's document production from the cloud service. No party shall remove any part of its own document production without ten (10) days advance notice to all parties that it intends to do. If any party objects to the proposed document removal, the parties shall meet and confer in accordance with subsection 3.2. If the matter remains unresolved, the party seeking document removal shall move the Special Magistrate for leave to do so. The ten (10) day notice requirement for removal of documents shall not apply to the inadvertent production of privileged documents. If privileged documents were mistakenly uploaded, the producing party may immediately remove the documents claimed to be privileged. The party removing the documents shall then serve a privilege log on all parties concerning the documents removed within 10 days of their removal.

4.2 Notice of Compliance. On each occasion where a party produced documents pursuant to this CMO, the party shall also serve upon all parties a Notice of Compliance. The Notice of Compliance shall generally index and describe the nature of the documents produced and provide a Bates stamp range of the documents produced.

4.3 Plaintiff(s) Document Production. The Plaintiff(s) shall produce all non-privileged documents, photographs, images, reports, correspondence, and materials in the Plaintiff(s)' custody or control (whether maintained in hard copy or digital form) arising from, related to, or in connection with the Subject Property's construction, maintenance, alteration, repairs, damages, construction defect related complaints, Chapter 558 Notices, turnover reports, governing documents, board meeting minutes, and annual budgets. If full size construction plans or "as built" sets are part of the Plaintiff(s) production, they shall be scanned and produced in accordance with subsection 4.1, but Plaintiff(s) shall also make the plan sets reasonably available to all parties for making their own hard copies. If more than one party seeks hard copies of a plan set, the parties are encouraged to coordinate the reproduction effort to minimize duplication costs. Plaintiff(s) shall pay all production expenses pursuant to this subparagraph with the exception of reproducing hard copies of plan sets. If an object is within the custody or control of Plaintiff(s) that cannot be scanned, such as a building component, Plaintiff(s) shall produce an evidence log describing the nature of the object, when it was obtained and from where it was obtained.

4.4 Defendant and Third-Party Defendant Document Production. Defendants and Third-Party Defendants shall produce all non-privileged documents and job file materials arising from, related to or in connection with the Subject Property's design, development, construction, repair or sale, including but not limited to, photographs, images, correspondence, drawings, log books, notes, sketches, submittals, contracts and contract documents, bids, proposals, change orders, back charges, job file materials, permits, inspection reports, plans and specifications, lien waivers and releases, reports, meeting minutes, approvals, warranty requests and repair documents. If full size construction plans or "as built" sets are part of the production, they shall be scanned and produced in accordance with subsection 4.1, but the producing party shall also make the plan sets reasonably available to all other parties for making their own hard copies. If more than one party seeks hard copies of a plan set, the parties are encouraged to coordinate the reproduction effort to minimize duplication costs. The producing party shall pay all production expenses pursuant to this subparagraph with the exception of reproducing hard copies of plan sets. If an object is within the custody or control of the producing party that cannot be scanned, such as a building component, the producing party shall produce an evidence log describing the nature of the object, when it was obtained and from where it was obtained.

4.5 Continuing Obligation to Produce Documents. All parties are under a continuing obligation to produce all non-privileged documents and materials discovered after the initial production. In the event that a party subsequently discovers documents or materials, that party shall follow the same procedures set forth above. If it becomes necessary for any party to augment their document deposit, they must similarly augment their Notice of Compliance. Any new party appearing in this matter shall comply with this section within forty-five (45) days of appearing.

4.6 Failure to Comply with Production Requirements. Any party not depositing all documents and materials in its possession, custody or control, shall, in the Notice of Compliance describe any documents withheld with particularity and state the basis for refusing to produce the document(s). No party shall withhold any document or materials from production that the party intends to enter into trial evidence.

4.7 Insurance Policies and Information. Defendants and all Third Party Defendants are required to deposit within thirty (30) days after service of this Order, copies of any and all certificates of insurance, declaration pages, and insurance policies referencing potential insurance coverage obtained for work that is the subject of this lawsuit, any additional insured endorsements naming any party to this action as an additional insured, any reservation of rights letters related to this litigation and any correspondence denying insurance coverage. If a party is unable to comply with this subsection, either because the certificate(s) and/or endorsement(s) are unavailable or no insurance was obtained, that party shall notify all parties of the inability to comply with this subsection. Any new party appearing in this matter shall comply with this subsection within forty-five (45) days of appearing. The parties shall serve a Notice of Compliance on all parties when documents pursuant to this subsection are produced.

Plaintiff(s) shall produce all insurance policies, documents and materials related to any claim made against its real property insurance policies providing potential coverage for the Subject Property.

4.8 Statement of Insurance. Defendants and third party defendants shall serve on all other parties responses to the Insurance Questionnaire attached hereto as Exhibit "A" within thirty (30) days after the service of this Order. Any party appearing subsequent to the entry of this Order shall respond to the Insurance Questionnaire attached as Exhibit "A" within forty-five (45) days of an entering an appearance in this matter. The responding parties are specifically ordered to respond directly to the Insurance Questionnaire and not to simply refer to extraneous documents or insurance policies or declare that the matter is under investigation. Each party shall have an authorized representative sign the party's responses and cause them to be duly verified before a notary public.

4.9 Standard Interrogatories. Plaintiff(s), defendants and third party defendants shall serve on all other parties responses to the Standard Interrogatories attached hereto as Exhibit "B" within 30 days after the service of this Order. Any party appearing subsequent to the entry of this CMO shall respond to the Standard Interrogatories attached as Exhibit "B" within forty-five (45) days of an appearance in this matter. The responding parties are specifically ordered to directly respond to the standard interrogatories and not simply refer to extraneous documents or declare that the matter is under investigation. Each party shall have an authorized representative sign the party's responses and cause them to be duly verified before a notary public.

4.10 Electronic Discovery. _____ (insert any agreements reached regarding the requirements and timing of electronic discovery).

5. EXPERT DISCOVERY

5.1 Expert Disclosures. The parties shall designate their expert(s) expected to be called at trial and serve all information specified in BCP 7.5 in accordance with subsection 4.1 by the deadlines set forth in subsection 2.2. The disclosures shall also include a list of available dates each expert is available to testify during the period assigned for the expert's deposition in subsection 2.2. The experts shall hold their availability dates open until the actual deposition dates are selected, which should occur no later than the CMO's deposition scheduling meeting. Ten (10) days prior to each expert's respective deposition, the parties shall produce copies of each expert's job file in accordance with subsection 4.1. Parties added after the expert disclosure deadline shall comply with this subsection's expert disclosure requirements within forty-five (45) days of their notice of appearance.

5.2 Expert Depositions. Each expert shall bring his or her job file documents and materials to deposition. Expert depositions shall be held at the designated court reporting service in Orange County, Florida unless otherwise stipulated to by the parties.

5.3 Expert Deposition Compensation. The designated court reporting service shall record the actual time a party questions an expert, multiply the questioning time by the expert's hourly rate, and provide questioning counsel with an invoice reflecting the amount due to the expert. With exception to the party who retained the expert, the questioning parties are not responsible to pay for the expert's deposition preparations, travel time or lunch break. Nothing in this subsection prevents any party from challenging the reasonableness of an expert's deposition hourly rate. Expert witnesses may only be compensated for their actual deposition time and are not entitled to set minimum billing periods. Payment of the expert's fee is due thirty (30) days after the party receives a billing invoice from the court reporting service.

5.4 Deposition Objections. Because the questioning party is paying for the expert's deposition time, counsel are especially cautioned against making speaking objections. Moreover, if one party objects to the form of an expert deposition question, all parties are automatically deemed to have joined in the objection.

5.5 Expert Rebuttals. The parties may petition the Court for leave to designate rebuttal experts or expert reports.

6. DEPOSITION PROCEDURES

6.1 Court Reporting Service. The parties have agreed to use _____ for all court and deposition reporting in this matter. Depositions shall be conducted at the court reporter's office. The court reporting service shall be required to maintain one set of exhibits which shall be available at all depositions taken in Orange County, Florida. The deposition exhibits shall be consecutively numbered for ease of reference.

6.2 Deposition Transcript Preparation Costs. The costs of preparation of the original deposition transcript shall be shared pro rata by the parties actually participating in the deposition by questioning the deponent. Statements of appearances at the beginning of the deposition do not count as participation. Mere objections made by any party during the course of the deposition shall not count as participation. If multiple parties are represented by the same attorney, then the attorney shall announce at the outset of the deposition which parties counsel is appearing on behalf of at the deposition. Thereafter, participation by counsel shall count as participation by each party for which counsel has announced representation.

6.3 Deposition Continuations. If a witness that has previously been deposed is scheduled for a continuation of a deposition or an additional deposition, counsel questioning that witness are required to have reviewed the prior deposition transcripts.

6.4 Telephonic Appearances. The court reporting service shall provide a call-in number to allow any party to participate telephonically in all depositions.

6.5 Deposition Scheduling Meeting. The parties shall participate in a deposition scheduling meeting prior to the deadline set forth in subsection 2.2. The parties shall meet in person and be fully prepared to share expert witness and Persons Most Knowledgeable availability dates for their depositions. If a certain deposition date cannot be agreed upon by all parties, the dates receiving the most approval from the several parties are deemed appropriate for the deposition's setting.

6.6 Other Layperson Depositions. Layperson depositions not set at the deposition scheduling meeting, shall be set by coordinating a date with defending counsel, where applicable, and providing all parties at least 21 days advance notice.

6.7 Cross-Noticing Depositions Unnecessary. All parties are deemed to have cross-noticed all depositions duly noticed.

7. OTHER DISCOVERY

Depositions of non-parties, laypersons and "Persons Most Knowledgeable" may be taken at any time unless the Special Magistrate is requested to control that discovery scheduling. Any party shall be allowed to conduct non-party document discovery upon proper notice to all parties, but shall produce any documents obtained in accordance with subsection 4.1 within fourteen (14) days of obtaining such discovery. All discovery not specifically enumerated or allowed in this CMO is stayed and cannot be conducted without leave the Special Magistrate and the Special Magistrate is directed to deny any discovery requests that duplicate CMO's discovery requirements.

8. REPAIRS

No repairs, except emergency repairs, shall be performed without five (5) business days of advance notice to all counsel. Emergency repairs may be performed provided Plaintiff(s) give(s) as much notice as reasonably possible under the circumstances. Plaintiff(s) shall supply, in writing to all counsel, the nature of any such emergency and the repairs performed.

9. MOTION PRACTICE

9.1 Rulings on the Papers and Memoranda. Due to the complexity of this litigation and the need to timely address the issues as they arise, pursuant to BCP 5.4, the parties are advised that rulings on motions may be rendered without oral argument.

9.2 Hearing Dates. A party seeking to set a matter for oral argument shall file a motion for oral argument setting forth the length of the hearing sought and shall provide a proposed order. If oral argument is granted and all parties cannot agree on a date, the date receiving the most approval amongst the several parties shall prevail.

9.3 Reporting. Parties desiring to have a hearing recorded are responsible for making the requisite arrangements with the designated court reporting service. Attorneys should arrange for the swearing of remote witnesses with the court reporter hired to attend the hearing.

9.4 Adding Parties. Additional parties may be added to this action without stipulation of the parties or leave of Court prior to the deadline set forth in subsection 2.2. After the deadline, parties may only be added to the action with leave of Court. If the Court is satisfied that a newly added party is unduly prejudiced by the late appearance in the action and requires greater time to complete discovery than contemplated by the discovery deadline, the claims against the new party may be severed for trial purposes.

9.5. Motions in Limine. Motions in limine shall be filed by the deadline set forth in subsection 2.2.

10. DESTRUCTIVE TESTING

10.1. By the Plaintiff(s). Destructive testing at the Subject Property must be noticed and occur by the deadlines set forth in subsection 2.2.

10.2 By the Defense. Defendants and third-party defendants performing destructive testing must submit their request to Plaintiff(s) and copy all parties at least twenty-one (21) days in advance of the testing, and at least thirty (30) days in advance if interior unit access is needed. Any contractor used by a defendant or third-party defendant to perform destructive testing must be properly licensed, bonded and insured by a standard commercial general liability policy (or the equivalent) for at least $1 million per occurrence for property damage and personal injury, and name the Plaintiff(s) as an “additional insured” on the policy. The Plaintiff(s) is not responsible for providing ladders, lifts or other equipment to assist with the defense inspections or testing.

11. EXTRAPOLATION SUPPORT TESTING.

Should mediation prove unsuccessful, Plaintiff(s) may conduct additional testing to support the extrapolations set forth in the expert reports (“Extrapolation Support Testing”). All Extrapolation Support Testing shall be paid for exclusively by parties conducting that testing, with at least 10 days of advance notice to all parties. Should Plaintiff(s) exercise the right to perform Extrapolation Support Testing, the Defendants and Third-Parties shall be entitled to conduct additional testing to gather evidence to defend against the Extrapolation Support Testing data (“Counter Testing”).

12. MEDIATION

12.1 Appointment of Mediator. _____ is appointed Mediator for this litigation. The Mediator may direct Plaintiff(s) to conduct a presentation of defects or to host an expert information exchange in advance of the mediation.

12.2 Attendance. At the Mediation, each party shall attend in full compliance with BCP 8.3(c). Telephone communication with counsel, a party or an insurance representative is not sufficient attendance at the mediation unless approved in writing by the Court. Applications to attend by telephone communication will only be granted upon a showing of good cause and shall not include the mere inconvenience and expense of traveling to the mediation venue.

13. TRIAL WITNESS LISTS AND FINAL JOINT PRETRIAL STATEMENT

13.1 Initial Trial Witness List. Each party shall serve Initial Trial Witness Lists in accordance with the deadline set forth in subsection 2.2 identifying individuals that are then known and may be called to testify at trial. The Initial Trial Witness List should include the name, address and general nature of the matters to which the witness is expected to testify.

13.2 Final Witness List. The parties shall serve Final Trial Witness Lists in accordance with the deadline set forth in subsection 2.2. The Final Trial Witness List should include the name, address and general nature of the matters to which the witness is expected to testify at trial. No party shall add witnesses to the Final Trial Witness List after the deadline without stipulation from all parties or leave of Court.

13.3 Final Joint Pretrial Statement. The parties shall comply with the Joint Final Pretrial Statement Requirements of BCP Section 9 by the deadline set forth in subsection 2.2 of this CMO.
